MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND/OR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND FOR ACCELERATED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff, Truck Drivers and Helpers Local Union No. 355 Health and Welfare Fund (“Health Fund”), by and through its counsel, Corey Smith Bott, Shauna Barnaskas, and the law firm of Abato, Rubenstein and Abato, P.A., hereby moves, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(d), 65(a) and (b) for a temporary restraining order and/or an injunction pendente lite, and for accelerated discovery, and for its reasons therefore states:

1. The requested temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction is necessary to preserve the rights of the Plaintiff Health Fund and the rights of its participants and beneficiaries.

2. Good cause exists to authorize Plaintiff to seek discovery from Defendants and other sources prior to the issuance of a scheduling order or scheduling conference.

3. Plaintiff submits, contemporaneously herewith, a Memorandum in Support of its Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and/or Preliminary Injunction and for Accelerated Discovery.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this honorable Court:

- a. Enter a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction prohibiting Defendants, or their agents, from distributing money from any source held in trust for the benefit of Mark Anthony Delinski to the extent of $250,820.98, the full amount of benefits paid by the Health Fund on Mr. Delinski's behalf, or the entire amount of any settlement related to the personal injury claim(s) arising from Mr. Delinski's accident on or about July 19, 2014, whichever is lesser.
- b. Order the Defendants to produce all documents specifically identifying the type and location of any assets already paid and/or to be paid by a third party in settlement of the personal injury claim arising from Mr. Delinski's personal injury claim(s) arising from Mr. Delinski's accident on or about July 19, 2014.
- c. Grant such further relief as the interest of justice may require, including interest, attorneys' fees and costs.
